3. On Friday, March 13, 2020, the Court entered an Order Concerning Grand Jury Proceedings, in the matter of In re: Coronavirus Public Emergency, General 20-3. The Order provided that because of the coronavirus public-health emergency, all regularly scheduled grand jury proceedings in the District of Massachusetts were continued to April 27, 2020.

4. On March 17, 2020, the Court entered an Order of Continuance and Excludable Delay excluding the time under the Speedy Trial Act from March 13, 2020, through April 27, 2020, and extending the time within which an indictment or information must be filed for the cases identified in paragraph 1 above, as well as one case that has since been resolved by the filing of an information.

5. On March 30, 2020, the Court entered a Supplemental Order Concerning Grand Jury Proceedings, in the matter of In re: Coronavirus Public Emergency, General Order 20-4. The Order continued all regularly scheduled grand jury proceedings until at least Friday, May 29, 2020.

6. No grand jury proceedings are scheduled before June 2, 2020, which is the first date that a grand jury is currently scheduled to be in session after the expiration of the Court's Orders.

7. As a result of the Court's Orders, the government will be unable to seek an indictment in any of the above listed cases earlier than Tuesday, June 2, 2020.

8. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting the requested continuance for all of the cases listed above outweigh the best interests of the parties and the public in a speedy trial. The time period from March 30, 2020, through June 2, 2020, will therefore be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

Accordingly, and for the foregoing reasons, the Court hereby GRANTS the government's motion for a continuance and exclusion of time, and ORDERS that, pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. §§3161(h)(7)(A), and Sections 5(b)(7)(B) and 5(c)(1)(A) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases, as to all of the cases listed above, the time period under the Speedy Trial Act from March 30, 2020, through June 2, 2020, is excluded, and the time within which an indictment or information must be filed for those cases is continued to June 2, 2020.

Nothing in this Order prohibits any defendant in the above-named cases from seeking further review of any pending detention order.
